WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

The Asian Prosthetic and Orthotic Scientific Meeting is one of the most authoritative scientific meetings in the field of Prosthetics and Orthotics in Asia. This biannual event strives for the further development of the field, with all related professionals such as medical doctors, professors, physical therapists, prosthetists, orthotists and students gathering to network and share the latest knowledge. The Organizing Committee is focusing all its efforts on making this meeting a highly rewarding experience that you won't want to miss.

WELCOME TO SEOUL, KOREA!

- Harmony of Old and New: Seoul uniquely combines the contrasting flavors of traditional culture with the excitement of a bustling metropolitan city. Home to the nation's political and financial institutions, you will be impressed by the thriving commerce and world-class infrastructure. Once the ancient capital of the Joseon Dynasty, Seoul is a city rich in historical treasures that offers visitors the chance to explore and gain insight into a bygone era.
- Eco-Friendly City: Running through the center of Seoul, the Han River provides a great escape from city life with the cool breeze and natural environment.
- Warm Hospitality: The biggest asset of Korea is its people, who are very friendly and hospitable.
- Safe Streets: Korea is one of the safest countries in the world, so you can have peace of mind anywhere, anytime.
